

A. ART FOR AIDS WEEK OCT 11-16

25 YEARS TOGETHER

The 25th Annual Art for AIDS, San Francisco's exclusive art event, benefits the UCSF Alliance Health Project, presenting contemporary and modern art donated by artists, galleries, and collectors around the country.

New exclusive virtual venue with unlimited admissions. Purchase your sponsorship today to be a part of this legendary event.

Art for AIDS WEEK 2021!

Includes a daily Art Talk with artist interviews and silent auction jury favorites. The finale will be held on Saturday, October 16, 2021.

Art for AIDS contributors will be showcased at the event, through social media, on the Art for AIDS website, and on digital materials.

Art for AIDS promotional campaigns reach a well-targeted, upscale, and philanthropic art-buying audience, as well as distinguished supporters of LGBTQ+ and HIV mental health.

Your sponsorships and donations support vital LGBTQ+ community services. Together we are a community responding to the mental health needs of the LGBTQ+ and HIV communities.

For complete information about sponsorship levels and benefits, go to the Art for AIDS website, alliancehealthproject.ucsf.edu or contact DK Haas at dk.haas@ucsf.edu, 415-476-6394.

25 YEARS OF HOPE

James Dilley, MD
Executive Director,
Emeritus Professor of Clinical Psychiatry

Lori Thoemmes, LMFT
Director

Benefiting the UCSF Alliance Health Project, Art for AIDS directs invaluable resources toward the LGBTQ and HIV-affected communities in San Francisco.

Our services have been an emotional and psychological lifeline to people living with, and at risk for, HIV since the early days of the epidemic. AHP invites community partners, corporations, and foundations to join us in support of our 35 years of pioneering HIV testing, provider education, and research efforts.
