Join a Peer HIV Support Group Connect With Others

AHP's peer support groups are facilitated by experienced volunteers who create a welcoming and safe space for those who want to talk about their lives with others who share similar experiences.

Weekly Peer-Led Support Groups offer

- connection with others;
- the feeling of being seen and appreciated;
- the transformative impact of belonging.

Our volunteer peer group facilitators come from diverse communities. They complete an intensive training and make at least a one-year commitment.

Group discussion topics include

- Living with HIV/AIDS
- Dating, Aging, and Sex
- Grief and Loss
- Medications
- Housing and Community Resources

Join a peer-led support group and give yourself the gift of an expertly facilitated group guided with love and care by a skilled facilitator.
